3  2  5

Securely set along one of Auburn's quietest residential avenues, 41 Norman Avenue, a neat three-bedroom home presents a compelling blend of lifestyle sophistication, practical scale and effortless connectivity within the tightly held Auburn-Berala corridor. Commanding an approx. 480.6sqm parcel with a generous 14.94m frontage, the contemporary rendered facade and timber-lined front verandah establish an immediate sense of considered presentation from the street, with a gently elevated position lending privacy and presence.

Inside, natural light permeates the entire floor plan through architectural column openings and expansive aluminium-framed glazing, with polished cypress pine floors creating a warm, continuous thread through every
