5 🛏 5 🚿 2 🚗

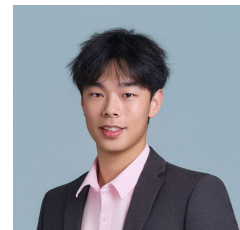

A newly completed residence of rare architectural confidence, 20A Belgium Street delivers an exceptional standard of craftsmanship rarely seen in Auburn. Positioned in one of the area's most desirable pockets and just moments from the Auburn Botanic Gardens, this newly completed torrens-title residence showcases a bold sculptural design paired with a refined material palette and true resort-style entertaining.

From first approach, the home commands presence with its textured render façade, natural marble external staircase, oversized pivot entry door and commercial-grade glazing. Built with double brick construction on the ground floor and a suspended concrete first-floor slab, the residence is engineered for permanence, further enhanced by a solid
